HOW IT WAS DONE.

A List of the Voters not Listed For Taxes.

A careful examination of the city tax collector's books has been made and the following names of voters who assisted in the election of the Republican council last Saturday nowhere appear. The assessment was made after the 15th of January and no citizen who was not here Dec. 14, 1888, was entitled to vote in the late election. The record here presented shows that either one-eight of the colored voters of the city were not listed by Mr. H. T. McDaniel, who made the assessment, or else the late election was carried by wholesale fraud, perjury and corruption. Here is the list, which the public can analyze:

White.—A. W. Brackridge, J. W. Cooley, W. J. Witty.

Colored.—Sam Adams, Geo. Barnett, Lawson Bell, Geo. Boyd, Fredrick Boales, John Boyd, (colored No. 2), Jno. Brewer, Jno. Black, Jesse Boyd, Geo. Butler, Hollins Berry, Silas Bradshaw, Isiah Bradford, Ed. Buckner, Fred Coleman, Damon Crenshaw, Jesse Coleman, A. S. Cox, Henry Davis, Henry Davis, Neal Catlett, Wm. Dawson, Bill Dowling, Wm. Dabney, Jr., J. J. Fleming, Archie Green, Lucien Green, Hillman Green, Joe Gibson, Dick Harrison, Rev. G. A. Hubbard, Reuben Hubbard, Dock Hughes, Joe Hopson, Jno. Harris, Joe Jackson, Kilt Johnson, Jas. King, Henry Killebrew, Sam Ledford, W. A. Littlepage, Dan Marshall, Tom Moore, Ben McCoy, Grant McNeely, Austin Myers, Jno. Morse, J. Henry Napier, Dave Orchard, Jno. Overbey, Porter Phelps, Israel Pierce, A. H. Payne, Wm. Rios, Page Rogan, Joe Robinson, Grove Rollins, Wilson Ratcliffe, Simpson Sharp, Jim Stoner, Henry Sykes, Walter Henry Stites, Sam Taylor, Wm. T. Tyler, Julius Thompson, Jordan Withers, Geo. Walker, Jno. Williams, Bill Washington, Chester Wilcox, Simon Wilcox, Jr., Andrew Williams, Chas. Worth, Strother Wallace—74.

Albert Slaughter, Wm. Roach and S. H. Long voted, but they may be Alfred Slaughter, Willis Roach and Solomon Long, whose names appear on the books.

Of the names on the books Alex Jones is reported as having moved to Madisonville and Bob Noreinger to Trenton. They were both on hand and voted.

The following voters held to be qualified by the Democratic judge of the election were denied a vote by the two Republican officers: Jas. Bradley, Stephen Blair, col., J. A. Long, Bell Metcalfe, col., T. L. Turner, col., and John H. Witty. They are all sworn and stated on oath that their homes had been in Hopkinsville for a year or more.

To say nothing of these votes rejected for the Progressive ticket and the above enumerated votes of a questionable character admitted on the Republican side, the list of non-listed voters given shows 77 names. A small proportion of these are well-known parties omitted by the city assessor and some few are boys who have just come of age. But the great majority of them were fraudulent votes illegally admitted. A number of them have already been located outside the city. It will be seen that four or five of them gave the names of white men in the city and it is not unlikely that some of these names are entirely fictitious.

The list above is published for a two-fold reason. These names, if they are residents of the city, should have been listed for taxation and the information contained in this article in order that they may be properly listed. Furthermore, those who are found to be non-residents, who have perjured themselves, will likely be wanted when the grand jury shall meet.

It is safe to say that at least three if not four of the gentlemen on the Progressive ticket were beaten by fraudulent votes and two and perhaps three of the Republicans elected are ineligible under the laws of the city as interpreted by some of the best lawyers of Hopkinsville. It is not likely that any contest will be made, but the tax-paying, law-loving people of Hopkinsville will ask of the coming Legislature such legislation as is needed to insure fair and honest elections in the future.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

TOLDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for nearly 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience, have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you.

Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,
L. L. GORSUCH, M. D.
Office, 215 Summit St.

We will give $100 for one case of Catarrh that can not be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

See the advertisement of Herndon & Major, proprietors of Grange Tobacco Warehouse, Clarksville, Tenn., which appears elsewhere in this issue. This popular house is now represented by Mr. R. B. Withers, formerly of this city, and any tobacco consigned to them will be properly handled on the market and the highest price obtained, as the gentlemen composing the firm are old men in the business and exceedingly popular.

MATRIMONIAL.

BREATHITT-THOMPSON—Married.

At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. G. V. Thompson, at 8:30 o'clock last evening, Hon. Jas. Breathitt and Miss Olivia Thompson. Rev. J. W. Lewis, of the Methodist church, was the officiating clergyman.

Only a few very intimate friends and the near relatives of the contracting parties were present. After the congratulations were over the bride and groom proceeded to the residence of Mr. J. W. Breathitt, a few squares away, and were given an informal reception. They will for the present take rooms and board at Mrs. Breathitt's.

The groom is one of the leading lawyers of the Hopkinsville bar and enjoys the reputation of being its most eloquent and gifted orator. He has several times represented the county in the Legislature and has filled other official positions. At present he holds the office of city attorney, to which he has been twice elected without opposition. He is one of Hopkinsville's most promising young men, with a bright future in store for him. His bride is one of the young ladies who has given Hopkinsville its distinction as the home of lovely girls. Bright, pretty and petite she has ever been a favorite in social circles. In choosing her as the object of his affections, Mr. Breathitt has displayed excellent taste and in winning her his good fortune has gained for him the congratulations of his friends. May their lives ever fall in pleasant places.

Hopson—Woot—Mr. Sam'l J. Hodgson, of Clarksville, and Miss Georgia W. Woot were married at the residence of Mr. Eugene Wood in this city, Wednesday afternoon, Rev. H. A. Macdonald officiating. The newly married couple left on the 5 o'clock train for Clarksville, their future home. Mr. Hodgson is a very popular and enterprising business man of Clarksville and his handsome bride is the accomplished sister of Mr. Eugene Wood, one of our best known citizens. The KENTUCKIAN extends congratulations, although it doesn't like to see so many of our pretty girls captured every year by Hopkinsville's rival across the line.

Previous to starting, the bridal party partook of a very elegant lunch prepared by Mrs. Wood. A great many handsome and costly wedding gifts were received by the bride.

The party left the house a slipper was thrown after them and a shower of rice followed them as they boarded the train.

DRAGHAN—SETTLE—At the residence of the bride's parents, at Kennedy, Ky., near the Tennessee line, on Wednesday last, Prof. J. T. Draughan, of Texarkana, Tex., was married to Miss Minnie Settle, one of the belles of South Christian, one of the belles of South Christian.

Wm. Winn, of Texarkana, and Miss Lizzie Killebrew were the attendants. Prof. Draughan formerly lived in this city, but is at present at the head of a business college in Texarkana. His bride is a very charming and estimable young lady belonging to one of the best families of South Christian. The newly married couple left for their western home.

BAILEY—STANDFORD—Dr. W. O. Bailey and Mrs. Lorina Scott Standford were married at Paducah Wednesday and left for Louisville. The wedding was a quiet one. Dr. Bailey is the original sweetheart of the young bride, who was an "old man's darling" for three weeks and fell heir to a fortune of over $200,000, one-third of Dr. Standford's estate.

SCOTT—McGEE—Mr. Sink Scott and Miss Maggie McGee, both of South Christian, were married last Sunday at the residence of Rev. I. G. Joiner, near Lafayette. They were given a reception at the groom's residence.

D. B. Sills and Miss Edna Wain, an eloping couple from Kentucky, were married at Clarksville on the 13th by Dr. Sears.

Mr. William T. Price, a Justice of the Peace at Richmond, Nebraska, was confined to his bed last winter with a severe attack of lumbago; but a thorough application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm enabled him to get up and go to work. Mr. Price says: "The Balm can not be recommended too highly." Let any one troubled with rheumatism, neuralgia or lame back give it a trial and they will be of the same opinion. 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavel.

THE CRAFT.

The Somerset Reporter published by John B. Rucker, is advertised for sale.

Buckner Leavel, druggist, desires to inform the public that he is agent for the most successful preparation that has yet been produced for coughs, colds and croup. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than any other treatment. The article referred to is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a medicine that has won fame and popularity on its own merits and one that can always be depended upon. It is the only known remedy that will prevent croup. It must be tried to be appreciated. It is put up in 50 cent and 60 cent bottles. For sale by Buckner Leavel.

The Montana Muddle.

Helena, Mont., Dec. 17.—Up to now no attention has been paid to the so-called warrant sent by the Democratic minority to the Republican members of the Lower House, who have decided to ignore it in toto. Just how the matter will be settled is still a question. The Governor without notice this morning sent his message to the Senate and the Democratic House. In the former it was read, but when its nature was discovered was laid upon the table, as the Senate had not permanently organized. The Democratic House referred it to a select committee. The message, after treating the subjects of needed legislation, is a half apologetic and a half defiant epistle on the present muddle, but presents no new feature or advice for a solution.

The Clarksville Tobacco Leaf gives this account of the arrest of a trio of wheat thieves at Guthrie: "Pork Prices and Clarence Hollins brought to the city yesterday three colored men named Dock Eddington, Scott Bennett and Henry Trevathan, and lodged them in jail on a charge of stealing wheat from Mr. Price. That gentleman had missed between 50 and 200 bushels of wheat, besides a lot of corn. In the last few months, he suspected these negroes and watched them. Last week he learned that they had delivered fifty-four bushels of wheat (eighteen sacks) to Pope's mill on Elk Park, in Kentucky, he concluded that that was Mr. Price's neighborhood would hardly think of. He at once had them arrested, when they confessed the theft."

I. W. HARPER'S OLD NELSON COUNTY KENTUCKY WHISKY Has been recognized for years as one of the foremost and finest whiskies placed before the American public. Like every article of fine quality it caters not for the bulk of consumers, to whom one whiskey tastes but little different from another, but for the appreciation of the connoisseurs only. It is, in short, a gentleman's beverage, and intended for gentlemen only. Edmundson & Long, sole agents Hopkinsville, Ky.
